| South Carolina |) | BAY SEWER SYSTEM |

AAA Utilities, Inc. has petitioned the Commission to approve the closing of its Mallard Bay Sewer System in Lexington, South Carolina. Until September, 2009, the system had served seven (7) customers. The City of Lexington extended its sewer line into the Mallard Bay Subdivision, and all seven customers were connected to the city's sewer line. Thereafter, AAA Utilities ceased operation of the Mallard Bay Sewer System.

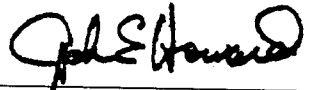

The South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff has expressed no opposition to the issuance of an order approving the closure of the Mallard Bay Sewer System. All former customers of Mallard Bay Sewer System are now served by the City of Lexington. Accordingly, we approve the transfer of customers and the closing of the Mallard Bay Sewer System.
